The NAIA's No. 19-ranked Biola used a 3-run first and a 4-run sixth to collect its third straight victory over Azusa Pacific, beating the Cougars 9-3 in Azusa to maintain first place in the Golden State Athletic Conference, a game-and-a-half ahead of second-place Azusa Pacific. Eagle pitcher Ben Orr beat the Cougars for the second time this season, holding Azusa Pacific to just 1 hit through the first 5 innings of play. Biola, which has now won 5 consecutive GSAC games, banged out 17 hits, including 4 doubles. Game 2 of this scheduled doubleheader was postponed because of rain.
