Game #26 - QUARTERFINALS

AZUSA PACIFIC MAKES FIRST-EVER TRIP TO NAIA SEMIFINALS

(TULSA, Okla.)--Top-seeded Azusa Pacific University (Calif.) has reached the NAIA semifinals following a 66-62 victory against University of the Incarnate Word (Texas) Friday in quarterfinal action of the 61st Annual Saint Francis Health System-NAIA Division I Men's Basketball National Championship.

In reaching the NAIA semifinals, the Cougars set a school record with their 17th consecutive victory. Azusa Pacific is 34-4 overall and will meet No. 4 seed Georgetown College (Ky.) in the first semifinal game Saturday at 6 p.m. (C.S.T.).

"I felt going in that they have just a great defensive record and I wanted us to take pride in our own defense," said Azusa Pacific head coach Bill Odell. "I felt these were the two best defensive teams in the tournament."

Incarnate Word led 32-30 at the half and stretched its margin to 42-35 with 15:35 remaining. Azusa Pacific answered with eight consecutive points over the next 2:21 to grab a 43-42 lead.

The Cougars took the lead for good on a three-pointer by senior forward Jeremy DeVries with 6:23 to play, putting Azusa Pacific in front 55-52.

"Coach has told us all year that offense wins ball games," said DeVries. "But defense wins championships and we just wanted to go out there and play hard defense."

The Cougars built a seven-point lead before Incarnate Word rallied to within 64-62 on a basket by senior forward Calvin Williams with 31.5 seconds remaining. Junior guard T.J. Walker then sealed the victory for Azusa Pacific by hitting a pair of free throws with 7.2 seconds on the clock.

DeVries led Azusa Pacific with 21 points, including five three-point field goals. Walker contributed 10 points and a team-high four assists.

Azusa Pacific becomes the first team from California to reach the NAIA Division I semifinals since Westmont College advanced to the same round in the 1984 tournament.

Incarnate Word finished its year at 26-5 overall. The Crusaders were paced by senior forward Calvin Williams, who had 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds.

"We seemed to run out of gas in the middle of the second half," said Incarnate Word head coach Danny Kaspar. "I think depth played a large role in the loss for us, particularly on the inside."

The Crusaders, the No. 9 seed in this year's tournament, were making their first appearance in the quarterfinal round.

Bill Odell (Head Coach)

"I felt going in that they have just a great defensive record and I wanted us to take pride in our own defense."

"I felt these were the two best defensive teams in the tournament."

"I felt like we were able to turn up the defensive pressure because of our depth."

"We got a big boost from Nate (Getz) inside. We really just ask him to neutralize somebody and he did just that."

"We needed

"We needed to show people that West coasts teams needed to be voted on and that we play good basketball."

T.J. Walker (6-0, junior guard)

"We knew we had to come in tonight and play 40 minutes of defense."

Jeremy DeVries (6-5, senior forward)

"Coach has told us all year that offense wins ball games, but defense wins championships and we just wanted to go out there and play hard defense."

INCARNATE WORD QUOTES

Danny Casper (Head Coach)

"We seemed to run out of gas in the middle of the second half."

"I think depth played a large role in the loss for us, particularly on the inside."

"I felt like the game was ours to have and we just didn't get it done and I think conditioning had something to do with that."

"We didn't care if we got a tie or the win, we just wanted to get the best shot possible."

Calvin Williams (6-4, senior center)

"I don't think I would rather play on any other team. We did a great job all year long. I couldn't be more happy with this group of guys."

Kevin O'Neill (6-4, senior forward)

"This was the first time I really felt confident going into every game. Even with just a minute left I still thought we were going to win the game."
