First HalfSecond Half

Azusa Pacific Head Coach Bill Odell

"Trevecca would not go away. I thought we had a couple of knock out punches there in the second half, but they kept coming back. At one point I turned to my assistants and said 'weren't we up by 5 a second ago' and here we were hoping to make free throws just to make a two-possession game.

"They caused a lot of our patience on offense by confusing us with their defense that they mixed up. In the second half I gave more specifics to our players as to what to run against their defense, and that seemed to help us.

"Scott (Zea) was clutch for us. With the way things were going, I thought we needed some scoring, and he came through. We wanted to look inside tonight, but we knew with their 2 big guys we weren't going to get rich in there. But Scott knocked down some big shots.

"Kasey (Myers) was the leader I needed on the floor tonight. We were confused by their defense, and I just felt more comfortable when I brought Kasey off the bench to run things. He has the experience, and he's a very smart player.

"We felt we could take advantage of them on our offensive glass, plus that would help us in stopping their transition game. When they made their short runs it was because we were not matching up with them in transition. They are very fast.

Trevecca Nazarene Head Coach Sam Harris

We played hard, but our biggest weakness has been the inability to get the defensive rebound. Against Azusa is a little taller and we great effort, but didn't block out enough.

For us to get better from where we are right now, we have to become a better rebounding team.

I thought our trap was good in the second half, but we couldn't run it in the first half because our guys didn't have their legs back yet from the late night game.

Azusa is the type of team we like to play, they hustle and are talented. Those teams make you better, in fact we've already talked about maybe going out there next year.

We probably over achieved this year, that's not to say we're not talented, but our guys play hard and learn from their mistakes. Very rarely do we make the same mistake twice. If our guys work as hard in the off-season, we'll be excited about next year.

We'll miss JP (Jerod Perry) he's been great for our program, he has scored all three years for us and had 27 in both games out here this year.
