WOMEN'S GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME: Azusa Pacific vs. Biola notes.

ABOUT THE COUGARS: Senior guard Sarah Leathers has enjoyed the friendly confines of the Felix Event Center so far, drilling 23-of-45 3-pointers in conference home games.

ABOUT THE EAGLES: Biola.

MEN'S GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME: No matter the records or the standings, the Azusa Pacific-Biola rivalry is the best in all of the Golden State Athletic Conference and tonight it is renewed for 42nd year. The timing of tonight's contest could not have come at a better place in the schedule with both teams coming off upset victories to fuel their confidence in the biggest game of the season to date.

ABOUT THE COUGARS: Azusa Pacific is looking to string together its first 3-game conference winning streak of the season after a last-second victory over the NAIA's No. 14-ranked California Baptist Saturday evening. Senior forward Davon Roberts, who made the game-winning shot at CBU, is playing All-American-like basketball, averaging 17.6 points, 6.1 rebounds and 3.5 assists since Dec. 29. Sophomore guard Mike Danielian has found his shooting touch after draining 5 treys for 20 points at CBU, and junior center David Burgess is emerging, averaging 11.1 points and 8.6 rebounds over the past 8 games.

ABOUT THE EAGLES: It has not been a typical Biola season. The Eagles find themselves in the lower half of the GSAC standings, thanks in part to a 4-game GSAC skid. However, they snapped that losing streak with an impressive and convincing 73-66 victory at Vanguard University. Last year's top freshman in the GSAC, Rocky Hampton, continues to lead Eagles.
