WOMEN'S GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME: Entering its fifth game of the young 2007-08 campaign, the NAIA's No. 16-ranked Azusa Pacific meets a third 2007 national tournament participant in Westmont as GSAC play continues.

SERIES NOTES: Azusa Pacific leads the all-time series with Westmont, 30-4, including a 16-1 mark at home against the Warriors. When the teams first met last November, Westmont snapped a 9-game series losing streak, although the Cougars bounced back at home for an 88-66 win later in the year.

ABOUT THE COUGARS: After 3 impressive victories to open the campaign, Azusa Pacific must find a way to bounce back from defeat for the first time this season after dropping a 53-44 decision at Cal State Dominguez Hills Saturday night. The Cougars shot just 35 percent from the field, although senior forward Abby Johnson went 8-of-13 and finished with a game-high 21 points. Johnson is Azusa Pacific's only player averaging double figures in scoring at 15 points per game, and she is also pulling down a team-high 7 rebounds per game.

ABOUT THE WARRIORS: Westmont hasn't played since last week's disappointing 71-68 defeat at California Baptist. In that game, the Warriors struggled at the end of both halves, going scoreless over the final 5-and-a-half minutes of the first half, then going without a point for the final 3 minutes of the second half.

MEN'S GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S GAME: It's too early in the young campaign to go down 0-2 in the conference season but that's what tonight's loser of the Azusa Pacific-Westmont game will be dealing with in a rematch of one of the GSAC's most spirited and long-running rivalries.

SERIES NOTES: Westmont is the only GSAC school to have a winning record vs. Azusa Pacific. The Warriors lead the all-time series, 42-33, but since 1996 Azusa Pacific has controlled the series with a 20-9 record. In Azusa, the Cougars are 18-12 vs. Westmont, including a 6-2 mark in the Felix.

ABOUT THE COUGARS: Azusa Pacific is coming off a 2-game split at the County Bank Classic hosted by Cal State Stanislaus in Turlock, Calif., this past weekend. The Cougars are still searching for a set line-up and injuries to point guards Mike Caffese and Christiaan Hammond have slowed the process. Forward Davon Roberts and center David Burgess are emerging as team catalysts at both the offensive and defensive ends.

ABOUT THE WARRIORS: Much like Azusa Pacific, Westmont is still striving for a team identity in the opening weeks of the 2007-08 season. The Warriors downed a pair of lower-level NAIA teams — Dominican and Holy Names — before dropping its GSAC opener at Cal Baptist (86-61) last week. They are still adjusting to play without the graduated All-American center Santiago Aguirre, but newcomer Nasa Sete is establishing his presence.
