2010 COUGAR CLASSIC NOTES

- Azusa Pacific and Westmont will likely be more familiar with each other than any other pair of Golden State Athletic Conference programs—the teams share 6 common non-conference opponents at the same sites: 2 games each at this week's Cougar Classic, then another pair of games next week at Westmont's Heritage Club Classic, and both teams take on Rocky Mountain (Mont.) and Embry-Riddle (Ariz.) in Prescott, Ariz., Sept. 17-18, for a final non-conference tune-up heading into the 10-game GSAC schedule.
- ABOUT AZUSA PACIFIC: Since winning the 2007 NAIA title, the Cougars have yet to return to the NAIA national tournament despite compiling a 2-year record of 29-7-3 and top-15 final NAIA rankings both seasons. Azusa Pacific returns 5 starters from last year's 16-3 squad, including leading scorer Vinicius Dantas (12 goals).
- ABOUT WESTMONT: Warriors head coach Dave Wolf enters his 20th season at Westmont, and his 2010 squad features 10 newcomers to join the 15 returners (6 returning starters). The Warriors have a brand-new soccer field, which they will open at next week's Heritage Club Classic.
- ABOUT TRINITY WESTERN: In his first season at the helm, Spartans head coach Pat Rohla led Trinity Western to the bronze-medal games of both the Canada West and CIS National Championship tournaments.
- ABOUT WILLIAM JESSUP: The Warriors were picked second in the California Pacific Conference preseason men's soccer coaches poll. William Jessup's 7-4-1 CalPac record last year was the best conference finish in program history, and it included an upset that ended conference champion Holy Names' 44-game conference winning streak.
