AZUSA, CALIF. - Azusa Pacific's football team, led by its running back Marcus Slaten's 185 yards rushing and three touchdowns, handed Occidental their first loss of the season Saturday night in Azusa, 32-27.

A penalty marred first-half ended at 7-7 with the only scoring coming on a Slaten 1-yard run for the Cougars and a 44-yard interception return by Occidentals Eddie Gordon.

With the score tied late in the third quarter at 14-14, Azusa Pacific took control when Slaten broke a 71-yard touchdown run. The Cougars added a two-point conversion when the snap was fumbled to make it 22-14. Just three minutes later Azusa Pacific found the endzone again, this time on a 9-yard pass from quarterback Ben Focke to D.J. Williams set up by a Luis Acosta interception.

The fourth quarter saw Occidental's quarterback, Davin Lundquist, break a 62-yard run to set up a Hasani Dominoe 2-yard touchdown run, but it was too little too late as the Cougars were able to milk the clock and the lead the rest of the way.

The loss was Occidental's first of the season, dropping it to 6-1 on the season and now clouds their play-off picture. The win for the Cougars raises its record to 2-5 and the 32 points becomes its high-water mark for the season.
