SAN DIEGO 44, AZUSA PACIFIC 34

Saturday -- Nov. 9, 1996

AZUSA, CALIF. -- San Diego rebounded from a mid-third-quarter collapse to hold on and defeat the NAIA's No. 13-ranked Azusa Pacific, 44-34, in Azusa Saturday afternoon.

The Torreros jumped out to 19-0 lead just 17 minutes into the game and led 27-3 when Jeb Dougherty returned the second half opening kickoff 95 yards for a score. But Azusa Pacific answered with 3 TDs in 7 minutes and successfully made a trio of 2-point conversions to rally back and tie the score at 27-27 with 7:10 left in the third quarter.

However, San Diego answered with 14 consecutive points, scoring with 1:05 left in the third quarter and then again less than a minute into the fourth quarter, to take a comfortable 41-27 lead.

Four Cougar turnovers aided San Diego, which won its second straight and snapped Azusa Pacific's 6-game winning streak. A Marcus Slaten fumble in the third quarter killed a one drive just inside the Torrero 20-yard line. Then Elijah Raphael's handling miscue early in the fourth quarter set up Evan Hlavacek 1-yard TD plunge that put the Torreros up 41-27. The Cougars answered by going 82 yards in 11 plays, capped by J.D. Fox's 4-yard TD lob to Darryl Nolan. But when Tim Roth connected on a career-long 40-yard FG with 3:32 left in the game, San Diego had the victory in hand.

Led by Hlavacek's 72 yards, San Diego piled up 211 yards rushing against a Cougar defense that had surrendered just 192 rushing yard in the 3 previous games combined. Torrero QB John Khamis completed his first 3 passes of the game and not another one the rest of the way. However, his first pass when for 53 yards and a TD to Dylan Ching to put San Diego up 7-0 less than 3 minutes into the game.

With its fifth consecutive victory over Azusa Pacific, San Diego improves to 4-5 on the season. Azusa Pacific falls to 7-2, and in all likelihood will drop out of the NAIA playoff hunt. The 16 teams in the final NAIA poll advance to postseason, and with just 1 game left in the season it is doubtful that Azusa Pacific will earn a postseason bid.
